IV. Old Business

follow-up and completion

- a. I have had no suggestions for someone to take Beth's place on the board.
- b. We have had a great turnout for Summer reading so far. Our programs have run about 40 attendees so far.
- c. Brittany Hogue is fitting in well with the group. Aiden Yoder has moved to Hoover, so I will be hiring a new part-timer soon.
- d. Training for Reimaging School Readiness went well.
- e. The Homeschool expo was a little slow, but we got our programs out.
- f. The Reading Fair was a little cold, but I got some good attendance.
- g. All the books for LSTA 2023 have been purchased. We have seen an increase in the circulation for graphic novels. The Spanish section had to be redone since those books were listed with their English counterpart.
- h. The 2024 LSTA grant has been turned in, and we await results.
- i. Anita Herndon is back.
- j. I have redone the website and am keeping it up to date. It is at the same address.
- k. Butch is doing really well with transitioning to full-time.
- l. Anne is still with us until July 14th.
- m. We released our butterflies on May 10th. We had a pretty good crowd with about 25 people.

V. New Business

- a. Summer reading is going well.
- b. Our YA section has doubled in circulation.
- c. I'm starting to look at our Fall festival in October.
